Griffeth Design specializes in residential interior design throughout all of San Diego. Lead designer Jennifer Griffeth and her team understand how deeply personal your home is to you. Her team is ready to help you invest in your home in a meaningful way. Griffeth Design's boutique interior design studio centers on "intention." It's at the core of everything the team does, from caring for their clients to the selections they make. Griffeth Design specializes in California Coastal Design and strives to create timeless spaces that will grow with your family. They'll be with you every step of the way bringing their creativity, process, organization, and, of course, a good sense of humor to see your project through to completion.
